Product Designer I'm a designer with a human centred approach to design. I am passionate to solve problems through design and research, build valuable products for people. I'm fascinated by the intersection of design, tech and business.

EXPERIENCE

Predict X

London
Feb 2017 - Present

UI/UX Designer

Nimbletank

London
Oct 2014 - Jan 2017

Product Designer

Nimbletank is mobile product studio. I have worked closely with big brands such as Sky Sports, OVO Energy, Minicabit, Orange, Soundjack and many more. I also ran tailor made design sprints with clients to fail faster and create something of value quickly.

The BIO Agency

London
Oct 2013 - Sep 2014

Visual Designer

BIO is a full service design agency. I worked in the design team helping deliver holistic solutions for clients such as Halfords, Hachette, Hibu, Chep to name a few. I learned a lot about the design process and different methodologies.

Clusta

Birmingham
Sep 2012 - Apr 2013

Design Intern

I was fortunate enough to intern at Clusta Labs. Clusta Labs is one of very few agency's in Birmingham designing solutions for clients with user experience at the forefront. Some of their clients include Nokia, Oyster, Microsoft, Channel 4, and Selfridges.

EDUCATION

Birmingham Metropolitan College

2011 - 2013

BTEC Level 3 Visual Communication

BMET college is the best place to learn practical design knowledge. All of my tutors were also freelancing and sharing skills. I didn't just learn how to design i learned how to communicate ideas with people, facilitate workshops and deliver great solutions.
